

REPUBLIC DAY CELEBRATIONS

SPECIAL ASSEMBLY (PRIMARY DEPARTMENT)

“Constitution is not a mere lawyers’ document, it is a vehicle of Life and its spirit is always the spirit of Age.”

-Dr. B.R Ambedkar

Republic Day marks the date 26th January 1950, on which the constitution of India came into effect. To celebrate the auspicious occasion, Primary Department of Gyan Bharati School, Saket organised a special assembly which was conducted by the students of P1s who celebrated India's 69th Republic Day with fervent zeal and patriotism.

The assembly commenced with morning thought followed by patriotic songs sung by the school choir group. The students shared information about the importance of this day focussing on India's glorious past and how the Constitution was drafted.

The students also shared the fundamental rights and duties of an Ideal Citizen of India spreading awareness and encouraging the audience to be responsible citizens. It was overwhelming to see the tiny tots marching in to the tune of 'Left Right Left' portraying the brave and mighty soldiers of India.

The assembly commenced with a vibrant dance performance showcasing dance forms of various states of India conveying the message 'Unity In Diversity'.

It was indeed a day of celebration motivating the audience to be ideal citizens and serve their motherland!

