

SHRAVAN AND SIDDHARTH HOUSE FUNCTION REPORT

Shravan and Siddharth house held their house function, Man Ki Kasauti on 20th April 2018 amidst great zeal and elation. The function was graced and judged by Ms. Rizwana Parween, an eminent stage artist and singer, whose words of wisdom and support radiated a source of energy within all of us. The show commenced with the invocation, seeking the blessings of Lord Ganesha. The dance was an amalgamation of Bharatanatyam, Odissi and Kathak. This was followed by an orchestra recital Aaradhana based on the ragas namely Bhairabi, Vasant and Bahar. The mellifluous group song Tukarle ye yakin presented by the choir, celebrated the virtues such as determination and perseverance. The contemporary dance on the song, Dil ye Ziddi hai was an absolute delight to watch. It communicated the lesson of never giving up in the face of adversities. The highlight of the house function was the play titled Ashtavakra. Its brilliant depiction of the theme as well as characterization simply mesmerized the audience.

The function concluded with the finale wherein all the participating students came on stage to the roaring applause of the audience. After the finale, the judge Ms. Parween addressed the audience. The School Principal Ms. Nishi M. Manglik lauded the efforts of all the participants and the teachers and praised the beautiful performances and the innovative and creative execution of the theme.

