

CHILDREN'S DAY CELEBRATIONS

PRIMARY DEPARTMENT

“ Every child is a different kind of flower, all together they make this world a beautiful garden!”

Children's Day or Bal Diwas is celebrated as the birthday of India's first Prime Minister Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru who was born on 14th November, 1889.He was well known for his love for children.

As a tribute to 'Chacha Nehru' and his love for children,the Primary Department of Gyan Bharati School,Saket celebrated Children's Day with great pomp and show.On this occasion, a special assembly was organized by the teachers for the students.

The assembly began with a morning thought shared by one of the teachers.It was followed by a melodious song which highlighted the importance of hardwork.Next in line was a 'puppet story' narrated by the teachers.The students thoroughly enjoyed it.The students took pledge to be a good human being and give their best to the nation.

The assembly concluded with a closing thought.The day was celebrated with immense joy and gave students innumerable memories to cherish for life.
