

REPUBLIC DAY CELEBRATIONS

SPECIAL ASSEMBLY (PRIMARY DEPARTMENT)

Freedom in mind, Faith in words,

Pride in our heart and memories in our soul,

Let's salute our nation on this Republic Day!

Republic Day honours the date 26th January 1950 on which the constitution of India came into effect. The 70th Republic Day was celebrated in all its solemnity and grandeur by the Primary Department of Gyan Bharati School. A special assembly was organized by the students of class P3D.

The assembly commenced with a morning thought followed by patriotic songs sung by the school choir group. The students shared the significance of this day focussing on how the Constitution was drafted.

Next was a melodious instrumental music presentation on keyboard which filled the atmosphere with patriotic fervour. It was followed by English and Hindi poem recitations titled 'Where the mind is without fear' and 'Bharat ka Samvidhan'.

As a citizen of India, we are entitled to certain rights and duties. To spread awareness about the fundamental rights and duties of an Ideal Citizen, the students presented a street play encouraging the audience to be responsible citizens. To enthuse the audience with patriotic spirit, the students presented a group dance on patriotic songs. The auditorium echoed with a huge round of applause! The assembly concluded with a closing thought.

It was indeed a day of celebration motivating the audience to be ideal citizens and serve their motherland!

