

SPECIAL ASSEMBLY ON BIRTH ANNIVERSARY OF MOTHER TERESA

Students of Class P5A conducted a special assembly to celebrate the birth anniversary of Mother Teresa on 28th of August. The assembly started by evoking the blessings of almighty. Students came dressed in costumes and enacted an inspiring play showcasing the contribution of Mother Teresa and the service that she rendered to the society.

It was followed by a poem written by Mother Teresa and a melodious solo song presentation. Last but not the least, everyone was left spellbound with the group dance performance. The assembly came to an end with an inspiring quote by Mother Teresa, "Kind words can be short and easy to speak but their echoes are truly endless." In all, it was a stimulating assembly wherein children learnt about the importance of love, sacrifice and charity.
