

Deleberations on 'Champaran Satyagraha Centenary' and 'Cultures of resistance' at Gyan Bharati School

Gyan Bharati School hosted the Annual Inter-School Fest on Saturday, 5th August 2017. It comprised three competitive events namely- Gloria Humanitas, Mnemosyne and Com.Conclave. Numerous leading schools from all over Delhi took part in the events.

Gloria Humanitas celebrated the Centenary of the Champaran Satyagraha. It consisted of four events- Art Illustration and Calligraphy, Clay Modeling, Diary Writing, and the Jigyasa (Quiz), to highlight the triumph of satyagraha over the atrocities inflicted by indigo estate owners. The art events were judged by Mr. Manish Kumar. The Gloria Humanitas Rolling Trophy was bagged by St. George's School, Alaknanda.

The English programme, Mnemosyne was themed "Cultures of Resistance". It consisted of a Debate on "Curtaiment of freedom hinders progress" and Poetry Writing on a given picture. The literary events were judged by Ms. Pema Eden Samdup and Ms. Nzanmongi Jasmine Patton. The Mnemosyne Rolling Trophy was won by Amity International School, Saket.

In Com.Conclave, students set out on "A Quest to create a Business of Value". It consisted of two events- a stock market stimulation competition titled "Trader's Trait: The Mock Stock and "Mix it Up: The Ad-Act". These events were judged by Ms. Shipra Vaidya and Ms. Vani Kabir. The Com. Conclave Rolling Trophy was bagged by The Mother's International School.

The Director of the school, Mr. R.C. Shekhar praised the students for their quality of participation. He also motivated the participating students to imbibe the ever-lasting values underlying the three events.
