

Editorial

'To me, the greatest pleasure of writing is not what it's about, but the inner
-Truman Capote.

Welcome to the 2018- 2019 edition of the e-magazine. We are really proud and exuberant to acclaim that we are ready with all new hopes and hues to bring out this issue, which is going to surely unfold the unravelled world of the most unforgettable and precious moments of the school.

The magazine is to be viewed as a launch pad for the children's creative urges to blossom naturally. As the saying goes, mind is like a parachute and works best when opened. This humble initiative is to set the budding minds free, allowing them to roam in the realm of imagination and experience to create a world of beauty in words.

The enthusiastic write ups of our young writers are suitable to hold the interest and admiration of the readers. This souvenir is indeed a pious attempt to help our budding talents give shape to their creativity and learn the art of expression. We are sure that the positive attitude, hard work, sustained efforts and innovative ideas exhibited by our young friends will surely stir the mind of the readers and take them to the surreal world of unalloyed joy and pleasure. We have put in relentless efforts to bring excellence to this treasure trove. Our school magazine is an eclectic mix of how different students see their worlds differently and, in the process, make others aware of different opinions and perceptions on a range of issues.

Helen Keller has rightly said that the world is moved along not only by the mighty shoves of its heroes, but also by the aggregate of the tiny pushes of each honest worker. This herculean task of editing this school magazine would not have been possible without the sincere support of the members of the Editorial Board who sorted of the articles from the flood of articles we had got from our enthusiastic and inquisitive young writers, edited them and finally made a fair draft of them. I am thankful to all who dipped their oars into the turbulent water of the journal and have sailed it to the shore of publication.

GB Ites not only shine in the field of academics, but also bring pride to their school with their co-curricular achievements. Our school also has many writers, many of whom keep their talent hidden. We earnestly hope to showcase the work of such students. Selected articles submitted by the students will be edited and published in the school e-magazine, visible to you on the school website. The following members of the Editorial Board will be working to give this magazine its final form throughout the session 2018-19

MEMBERS (LITERARY PREFECTS)

BHAWNA MANGLA

RIAN GUPTA

We are thankful to our respected Principal for entrusting us with this responsibility and all the other teachers who have been mentoring us in our endeavour. I heartily wish all the readers my best wishes and hope this souvenir will receive your critical acclaim and prove itself to be worthy of a good read.

Happy Reading!